Obituary

Shirley Ann Wright (Wilburn) was born on July 31, 1956 to Anita M. Hamilton and Elmer L. Wilburn Sr. in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

She is preceded in death by her father and mother, her aunt Dorenia, two sisters Thelma Jean Wilburn and Doris U. Sims (Wilburn), also two sons Valdez Wilburn and Walter C. Wilburn, and husband Walter C. Wright Jr.

Shirley attended Moon Jr. High School a few years, then she met Walter C. Wright Jr. in 1969, from this union she had four children: Laquita, Ronnie and his wife Carmen of Arlington, Texas, Valdez and Walter III, years later she had Woasia Gaddis. Some of her working opportunities included Nursing Homes here in Oklahoma City, several jobs cooking at small restaurants in Oklahoma City.

“She was the Wild Child”

Shirley found and joined All Nations Champions Church, getting Christ back in her life. She loved all her grandkids.

Shirley Ann leaves to cherish her love and memory, her brother Elmer Jr.; three sisters: Yolanda, Cheryl and Annetta of Oklahoma City; her son, Ronnie and his wife Nurse Carmen of Arlington, Texas; her daughters: LaQuita Wilburn and Woasia, both of Oklahoma City; son, Walter C. Wright Jr., and his two sons, Lontez and Taleno of Midland, Texas; a large host of grandchildren, great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends. Also, to a special friend of the family, a good guy Lonnie Graves of Oklahoma City.

SISTER

*On day it happened
In a blink of an eye.
So sadly her life ended
without a chance to say good-bye.*

*She was such a happy girl,
with a beautiful smile.
Without a care in the world
She made it worthwhile.*

*She made everyone think,
and play with their mind.
She gave a quick wink
as their faces shine.*

*The sisterhood has gone with smiles and good times.
No partner to sing our songs
no best friend to sing our rhymes.*

*For her day has come to fly off to heaven,
and visit our mom and relatives.
She left us all without a good-bye kiss,
The one we will miss.*
