Reverend Greg Rogers - Officiating

*God saw you were getting tired, and a cure was not to be.
So, He put His arms around you and whispered,*

"Come with Me."

With tearful eyes we watched you slowly fade away.

*Although we love you dearly,
we would not make you stay.*

*A golden heart stopped beating,
Your hard-working hands to rest,*

*God broke our hearts to prove,
He only takes the best.*

Obituary

Geraldine Marie Graham was born to Minnie Ola and Joe Nathan Hightower on September 6, 1929 in Chickasha, Oklahoma. She was the second of four children. Her parents and 2 of her siblings preceded her in death.

Geraldine attended Lincoln School from elementary to high school and was active in the chorus. In 1948, Geraldine married Wylie Graham, Jr. Tragically, their union was short-lived as Wylie was killed in the Korean War conflict in 1951.

At an early age, Geraldine united with the Methodist church. Later in life, she united with the First Baptist Church and was baptized with her oldest son. She remained a member until her death.

Geraldine started her work career at Briggs Barbecue before working as a housekeeper in the community and later an assembly line worker at Maremount Corp. for many years.

Geraldine leaves to cherish her memory her sister, Ola Mae Graham, her six children, James Graham (Jennifer), Wanda Graham, Michael Graham (Felicia), Debbie McLean (Nathaniel), Donna McCarther, Terri Bowens (Kenneth); her nephew and nieces; and a host of grandchildren, great grandchildren, cousins, other relatives, and friends.

I've Done My Work

I've done my work
I've sung my song
I've done some good
I've done some wrong
Now I shall go
Where I belong
The Lord has willed it so.

He knows my heart
And he knows best
He will not harm
What he has blessed
And so, good night
I'll take my rest
Where sweet wildflowers grow.
