THIS IS THE STORY OF

Cheryl Renee (June) Pendleton -Cooper

Cheryl was an amazing mother, sister, grandmother, friend, and a happy fun loving person. Cheryl's story starts on April 17, 1952 the oldest child of five children to Harvey and Betty Pendleton. Cheryl was born in Youngstown, Ohio. When Cheryl was still little, Harvee and Betty moved their small family to Oklahoma City, OK, where Cheryl would spin her childhood, growing up and making many lifelong friends. Cheryl was very proud to be a Douglas High School Trojan class of 1970.

In 1969, Cheryl met Winford Golden and to that union one child was born, Winford Pendleton. Cheryl married Randell Street in 1975-1985 Cheryl then married Isaac Cooper Jr. in 1990-2004.

Cheryl excepted Christ at an early age.

Cheryl loved softball and she played for three different teams, the Explorers, Southwestern Bell Co-Ed, and Robinson Conoco. She also loved bowling and she bowled for several bowling leagues. Cheryl loved to sing and dance.

Cheryl worked at Southwestern Bell until 1988 and because of medical reasons she had to retire.

Cheryl is survived by her son: Winford Pendleton; sister: Laveren Hill; two brothers: Maurice (Mae Etta) Pendleton, and Michael Pendleton; two granddaughters: Dequisha Pendleton, and Tequah Craft; two great grandsons: Dalontae and Tayshawn Jones; her best friend; Vivian Farrakahn, and a host of nieces and nephews.

Cheryl was called home January 24, 2021 at 12:45 p.m. She was preceded in death by her parents Harvey and Betty Pendleton, and her infant sister Gwendolyn.

Cheryl loved life and surly knew how to enjoy it. She was best known for calling you on your birthday and singing Happy Birthday to You. Cheryl will lovingly and truly be missed.
