

DON'T CRY FOR ME

Don't cry for me now I have died, for I am still here ... I'm by your side.
My body's gone but my soul is still here,
please don't shed another tear.

I am still here I'm all around,
only my body lies in the ground.

I am the snowflake that kisses your nose

I am the frost that nips your toes.

I am the sun, bringing you light

I am the star, shining ever so bright

I am the rain, refreshing the Earth

I am the laughter, I am the mirth.

I am the bird, up in the sky

I am the cloud, that's drifting by.

I am the thoughts, inside your head

I'm still here, in spirit ...instead

MESSAGE OF GRATITUDE

To have had Sue as a Mother, Daughter, Sister or Best Friend is to have known unconditional love.

Her Love and Memory will remain in our Hearts and Spirits forever, gently and not so gently urging us to follow our dreams and find our life's purpose.

To those of you who reached out to us in Love, Prayers and any other Generosity of Time, Talent or Resources, We extend our profound appreciation.

For those who shared her amazing and inspiring journey, we thank you and ask that you continue to perpetuate her legacy of love and giving in your lives and in the lives of all you touch.

May we all walk as she did, in dignity, grace, courage and love.

In Loving Memory

SUECLIA FISHINGHAWK

Sunrise: November 1961 | Sunset: January 2021

“I have fought a good fight
I have finished my course,
I have kept the faith.” II Timothy 4:7

Sueclia Fishinghawk entered this life on November 5, 1961 and departed on January 31, 2021. She was welcomed into the loving arms of her adaptive parent Noretta Wadkins and the entire Wadkins family in Oklahoma City, OK. She received her education from Oklahoma City Public Schools, graduating from Northeast High School. Sue accepted Jesus Christ at an early age and was a devote Christian finding the Baptist doctrine gave her great peace and comfort as a follower and worshiper at All Voice of Praise church.

Sue was both kind and tireless in her efforts to make everyone she met feel welcomed and assured they were to become lifelong friends. She met no strangers and was well loved. Sue also enjoyed planning. She planned numerous events over the years from birthdays to weddings and all manner of celebrations.

She was also very proud of her swimming ability and many successes on the Northeast HS Swim team. She was a generous woman who loved life and valued her family and friends. She loved to travel, especially cruising, playing bingo, visiting Casinos and spending time with her son and grandchildren Max and Boss.

Sue had many joys and adventures, losses and pains but none more deep than the love she cherished with her son Malachi. He was the Love of her life. No mountain too high to climb or valley too low to go. The light that shined from her was the glow of a mother ever present and proud of him and the life they shared.

Sue is preceded in death by her sister Katherine Ann Fishinghawk and brother Anthony Wadkins. She leaves to mourn: her Son Malachi Fishinghawk, Mother Noretta Wadkins; brothers, Clarence E. Wadkins (Gail Wadkins), Cortez Clardy, Ronald Wadkins, Gerald Wadkins and Jessie Fishinghawk (Lena Fishinghawk); along with a host of cousins, nieces and nephews, great nieces and nephews, and a host of relatives and friends.
