Mom loved watching the doves on the backyard fence and the dove that was nesting on a flower stand on the patio until eventually they were mature enough to fly away.

In remembrance of mom's love for bird watching; especially the doves in the backyard, the following scripture comes to mind:

And Jesus, when he was baptized went up straightway out of the water; and, lo, the heavens were opened unto him and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove, and lightening upon him.

And lo a voice from heaven, saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased. Matthew 3:16-17.

On the early morning of her passing, a dove flew back and forth several times onto the front porch of the house, to the roof and into holly tree letting the family know mom was at peace.
