Obituary

Derrick Alexander was born October 5, 1989 to Darin Davis and Janice Alexander in Oklahoma City, OK.

Derrick attended Star Spencer High School in Spencer, OK, where he played the Cymbals in the Marching Band. He loved participating in the "Battle of the Bands" and they called him "Pretty Ol' Boy". He also loved wrestling, dancing, and playing basketball.

Derrick's grandparents Frances Jean and James Alexander, whom he loved very much raised him at Holy United Church. Derrick lived with his mother Janice Alexander most of his life. He also loved Janice very much. He was later joined by his fiance Amy Rivers at his moms home.

Derrick worked at Remington Park Casino and Chesapeake as a Chef.

Derrick was a very fashionable guy. He was always dripped down in gold, and designer clothes and shoes. He liked the finer things in life and was not ashamed to show it.

Derrick is survived by his Mother; Janice Alexander. Father; Darin Davis (Sarena). Sons; Derrick Alexander Jr, Da'Mari Alexander, and Prince Williams. Daughter; Italy Alexander. Sisters; LaToya Alexander, Desaray Alexander, Anndrea Bell (Jamal), Daria Davis, Salena Davis, and Chastity Parker. Brothers; Vicente Alexander, and Richard Parker.
