Obituary

Diana was the second child born to John and Erma Billings. Early in the morning on April 22, 1961, a bouncing baby girl entered into this world with a head full of curly hair, smiles, and giggles.

She attended the Church of God In Christ at an early age. Diana was a happy child growing up and a friend to everyone she met. She let nothing keep her down — always full of life and smiles.

She attended Oklahoma City Public Schools and graduated from Douglass High School in 1978. She was a free spirit with a mind of her own. She loved fashion and glamour with a personality to match. Most of all, she loved the Lord and her family.

Diana met Cartius Downey, and two sons were born, Cartius and James. Later she met and married Philemon Baker; that marriage ended and later she married James Robinson.

Diana was employed by Hormel Food Company and Goodwill Industries, where she was the manager over housekeeping at the State Capitol. She went back to further her education at Metro Tech as an Administrative Assistant.

She loved competition and excelled in chess, dominoes, and cards. She loved her San Francisco 49ers football team.

Diana leaves to cherish her memory, her mother, Erma Collins of the home; her sons, Cartius Billings (April) and James Billings; sisters, Kim Frazier and LaTasha Payne; four nephews; one niece; grandsons, Anthony and Alex; granddaughters, Anna and Isabella; a god-grandson, Jaiden; a special great-great-nephew, Xayvier; a host of aunts, uncles, great-nieces and great-nephews, cousins, and friends.

The Broken Chain

We little knew that morning that God was going to call your name.

In life we loved you dearly, in death we do the same.

It broke our hearts to lose, you did not go alone;
for a part of us went with you, the day God Called you home.

You left us peaceful memories, your love is still with us, and though we cannot see you, you are always at our side.

Our family chain is broken and nothing see the same;
but as God calls us one by one, the chain will link again.

Love, Kim and LaTasha
