23rd Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

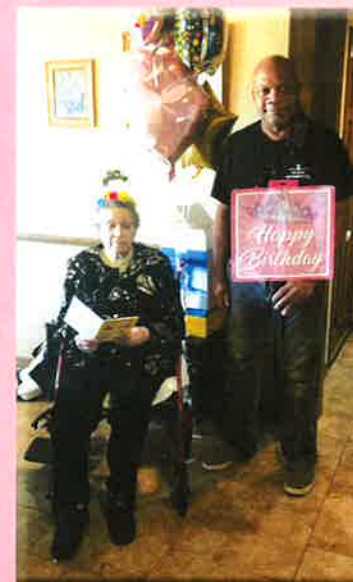

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Precious Memories

Dear Family and Friends,

I want you to know that I have moved. I RECEIVED A CALL FROM God, the chief architect, who informed me that I could move in immediately. You know that I have been sending my timber and only the chief carpenter Jesus Christ could do. Some were a little broad, or not long enough.

Well, my new home is finished and it is such a beautiful sight to behold! It is located in an exclusive estate area and it sits behind beautiful pearly gates just off a serene celestial shore. Of course the streets are paved with gold and every day is Sunday here, I have been told.

I've lived many places before my new home was prepared and none of the others compare. There is peace, joy, and happiness here with no pain to bear, no strife or discontent. There is only sweet serenity everywhere and I could go on and on about my new home, but I have to get fitted for my wings.

P.S. I don't have a phone, but you can always call God. If you don't know his number read your Bible. It's listed on every page.

My new address is Jacqueline Bailey, 1514 Heavenly Gateway, God's Town, Heaven.

Obituary

To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven: A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted; A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up; A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance. Ecclesiastes 3:1-4

A Time to be Born

Jacqueline Elizabeth Bruce Bailey was born October 31, 1940, in Muskogee, Oklahoma. She was the only child of Robert Bruce and Mary Edna Dean Bruce.

A Time to Prepare

Raised in Wichita, Kansas, Jacqueline graduated from Sacred Heart Academy in 1959, and then attended and graduated from the Wichita School of Practical Nursing.

A Time to Embrace

Although she did not have any brothers or sisters growing up, Jacqueline spent a lot of her time in Oklahoma City with her grandfather J.J. Bruce where she was very close to her Aunt, Shirley Bruce Darrell (deceased) and Uncle, Frank Bruce (deceased). She also grew up very close to cousin, Darrell “Mike” Dortch (deceased) in Independence, Kansas.

Jacqueline was married to the late Willie Bryant until his passing in 1979. She had three children, Marcus, Regina and Elizabeth. She was blessed with three grandchildren, Evan, Whitney and Miles (deceased). Jacqueline later got remarried to Sterling Bailey (deceased), and moved to Lawton, OK and then later moved to Oklahoma City.

A Time to Serve

A dedicated and faithful community servant, Jacqueline enjoyed a long career as a Licensed Practical Nurse. Over the years, she worked in many hospitals and health institutions, but some of her favorite stories come from her time working as a nurse at Mabel Bassett Correctional Center, and the Oklahoma County Jail. Jacqueline was a Christian woman of faith and her passion for service and helping others extended well into the community. She was a regular volunteer at church, she was active in volunteering with her neighborhood association, and was a visible presence at the neighborhood school, F.D. Moon Elementary. She was also a poll worker and a volunteer for many political campaigns. At the time of her death, Jacqueline was a member of Born Again Christian Ministries under the leadership of close friends and Pastors, Marcus and Tesha McMinn. Her service throughout the community was always with a loving smile and she will be fondly remembered by those she touched in her service to others.

A Time to Remember

Jacqueline leaves to continue her legacy of love and service, her son, Marcus Townsell (Cynthia); daughters, Regina Clear (William) and Elizabeth Bias; and her granddaughters, Evan and Whitney.

She was predeceased by her grandson, Miles and her daughter-in-law, Cynthia. She loved her extended family and had many fond memories of times traveling, and spending time with her cousins and special friends.
