Obituary

Darryl Lloyd Spencer was born October 26, 1961 in Nacogdoches, Texas to Fred & Leatrice Spencer, and has one brother, Ronnie Spencer. Darryl graduated from John Marshall High School and then attended Oklahoma State University for School of Business Administration.

After graduating high school, he married Shelia R Williams on February 16, 1980. They went on to have 2 daughters, Sheri Deneice and Natalie Dawn. Darryl served on the City Council as a Commissioner for the Police Department of Rush Springs, Oklahoma for 6 years. Darryl obeyed the gospel on March 18, 1982. While in Rush Springs, Darryl served as an Elder and spiritual leader at the Rush Springs Church of Christ. Then relocating his family to Oklahoma City, he and his family placed membership at the Spencer Church of Christ in 1997 under the leadership of Dr. Clyde Muse Sr. Within months, he became the Supervisor and maintained the property at the Roscoe Dungee living Center until 2016. Since July 2016, Darryl was a manager, employed with ABM where He managed and serviced over 27 schools throughout the Mid/Del school District.

He leaves to cherish in his precious memory, his loving wife of 41 years, Shelia Spencer, his two daughters Sheri Harris (Chris) and Natalie Wilson (Thomas) all of Oklahoma City, OK; his brother, Ronnie Spencer. Five grandchildren: Tyler, Christopher Harris Jr., Talia, Adrian, and Akayla; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, family and friends.
