Obituary

Veronica Althea Askew-Carter was born on April 18, 1971 to Roger L. Askew, Sr. and Pamela M. Askew at Brooks Army Medical Center, Fort Sam Houston, San Antonio, Texas.

Veronica was raised by her parents in several U.S. and European military installations. Veronica graduated from Soesterberg American High School, Soesterberg Air Base, Netherlands.

After graduation, Veronica married Richard R. Carter. From that union she gave birth to two sons: Durell Carter (Melissa) and Jamal Carter (Martana).

Veronica was quite gifted in many genres. As a single mom she loved her sons dearly. She was fiercely independent and wasn't afraid to color outside the line literally and figuratively. She enjoyed creating vibrant and expressive paintings, jewelry, and sculptures. She had a strong musical passion and spent time making her own songs on the piano and guitar.

She was loved by her family, loved by her neighbors, and loved by those that barely had a chance to know her well.

Veronica is survived by her parents, Roger Sr. and Pamela; one brother, Roger Jr. (Donna); and a host of loving aunts, uncles, and cousins.
