Celebration Of Life

Mother Lois Inez Roberson celebrated life from the day she was born on March 19, 1927 until the day the Lord came and carried her home on April 20, 2021. Her giving and caring spirit was seen throughout her life particularly in the way she put the needs of others before her own. She truly loved the Lord and was grateful for the many, many blessings that God saw fit to bestow upon her. Mother Roberson knew no boundaries when it came to giving of herself for her family and so, so many others. She was a foster mother to MANY, MANY children whom she dearly loved and taught them the true meaning of 1 John 4:7. She was affectionately known as “Nez,” Grandma, Grandma Nez, mother and Lois by her children, grandchildren, and those in the community. She instilled the love of God and family in all who entered into her life. Her unconditional love shows us that love has no boundaries and certainly no limits. No words can truly express how she touched everyone’s life and will continue to do so for generations to come through the many stories that we will continue to share. Her quiet, soft spoken manner exhibited strength, love and compassion that amazed us all. She lived her life before the one true God with a compassionate spirit of faith, hope and love. Mother Roberson was a great example of what God wants us to be.

Mother Roberson was born in Okemah, Oklahoma and accepted Christ and was baptized at an early age. After relocating to Oklahoma City, she united with Bethlehem Star Baptist Church where she and her husband Deacon Moses C. Holloway who proceeded her in death, served as faithful servants for many years in various areas of the church. During the year of 2009 she united with New Jerusalem Evangelist Temple Church of God in Christ under the leadership of the late Bishop Bobby L. Williams. She served faithfully as a member of the Sunday School Department, Pastor’s Aide, Deaconess Department and Mother’s Board.

In the year of 2016, she united as a member of United Faith Outreach Ministries under the leadership of Elder William H. Simms. Mother Roberson was a dedicated servant of the Page Memorial District. She remained a faithful member ever present in worship and support of all aspects of her church until she could no longer attend due to her health.

Mother Roberson leaves to cherish her memories one son, Donald L. Jackson (Ardell) of Oklahoma City, OK; two daughters; Estella Williams of Fort Worth, Texas and Gwynetta Gitten (Martin) of Le High, Florida; a stepson; Melvin Roberson of Cedar Hill, TX; her beloved grandchildren; Donald Jackson, Jr (who proceeded her in death), Loren Williams of Granbury, TX; Monica Williams-Garrett (Michael) of Godley, TX, Jonathan Sampson of Denver, Colo.; all of Oklahoma City, Louis and Luciana Holloway and Selena Wallace, who provided her Grandma love, devotion and dedicated care: ten great grandchildren; two great-great grandchildren; many foster grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.
