Obituary

Melanie K. Byrd (Geionety) was born in Lawton, OK on 5/5/1980 to R.W. Geionety and Lora Geionety. Melanie was the only daughter of that union as she followed in her mothers footsteps by learning how to sing at a very young age.

Melanie graduated from Anadarko High School “Class of 1998” in Anadarko, OK and immediately began her 20 year journey of superior work at American Fidelity. She worked in the Technical Department where she provided support for all products and trained other colleagues to operate at a higher level which assisted American Fidelity in obtaining the reputation that they have today.

Melanie’s favorite things to do were singing, shopping, learning, the word of God, exercising, and spending time with her family.

She is preceded in death by her mother Lora Geionety, uncle Brian Redbone, and brother Kyle Geionety.

She leaves the chairs for memory husband Jontue Byrd, father R.W. Geionety, son Brian Castillo, daughters Chalon Byrd, Chyna Byrd, Princess Byrd, and JonNaye Byrd, brother Michael Geionety, and a host of other relatives and close friends.

Melanie Kaye

Our love was both complete and whole as we used to say.

Because we allowed God
to show us the way.

He taught us true faithfulness
and to always pray.

So i thank our creator
for Melanie Kaye.
