Obituary

Anne M. Craig, 83, went to her heavenly home on July 22, 2021 in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

Ms. Craig was born in 1937, graduated from Manual Training High School in 1955, then moved to Phoenix, Arizona. She gave birth to her daughter Karen, while continuing her education at Arizona State pursuing a career in nursing.

During the mid 1960's, she moved with her daughter to Southern California, where she continued her education at Southwest College, graduating top of her class with honors. Ms. Craig was a well respected and loved nurse. Her overriding goal was the comfort and well being of her patients, many of whom stayed in touch after their discharge.

In 2000, she retired and returned to Oklahoma City, Oklahoma to be closer to her mother and siblings.

Ms. Craig was a loyal, fierce and God fearing woman, dedicated to her faith and family. As a lifelong, dedicated Christian, she has instilled her own love of Christ in her daughter and grandchildren. She was and will be loved by all who knew her.

Ms. Craig is survived by her daughter, Karen Jenkins-Galloway; grandchildren: Juanita Galloway and David Galloway of Los Angeles, California; as well as her two sisters: Rosetta Culpepper and Irene Johnson of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; her brother, Jonas Luke Johnson of Muskogee, Oklahoma. She was preceded by her mother, Lettie Wells-Johnson, father Leon Johnson and sister Corine Colbert.
