OBITUARY

In the spirit of Rickey "" Don't say goodbye, instead say,
"I'll see you later (Rickey's Special WORD of endearment!!!)

Rickey made his magnificent entrance into this world on November 12, 1956 in Oklahoma City, OK to the proud parents, Clarence and Willie Mae Seals. Rickey was born and raised in Spencer, Oklahoma along with four brothers, Clarence Jr, Raymond Seals, Emmett Seals, and Steve Seals. He also had four sisters, Cassandra Farmer Richards, Linda Wells, Lisa Seals and Kathi Seals.

He was educated in the Oklahoma City Public School District and graduated from Star Spencer High School in 1975. Rickey always seemed to be chill and care-free. Growing up with 8 siblings, there was NEVER a dull moment. If he was not playing football, basketball, or pool with his family and friends, he was under the hood of a car. Our dad made sure all the boys knew everything about cars. His love for cars grew from there. From his 1st car, a red two-tone Dodge Dart that would send mama flying off the porch yelling at him, and Jr. for burning rubber up the street to his last car, a red Mercedes. And on rare occasions, fighting with his siblings! Rare, because daddy did not play that.

Family- He and his ex-spouse Caril are blessed with 3 daughters (LaQueena, LaTonya, and LaDonna) and 8 grandchildren (Nicholas, Anaiya, Jayla, Jaylen, Quayah, Ariane, Khalid Jr, Khalil). Add his parents, siblings, their kids, and their grandkids... NEVER A DULL MOMENT!

Work- He was employed with DLA Aviation, for over 20 years, where he was stationed at Tinker that entire time. He loved the work that he did, and the colleagues that he worked with.

Play- He loved to BBQ, the casino, and playing video games with his childhood friend Larry EVERYDAY. He liked spending time with his kids, siblings, and friends. If you didn't find him with family or at work, you would find him on the couch with Larry playing video games or at the casino with Steve and Raynald Smith AKA Big Country.

Rickey, age 64, left his earthly tabernacle on Sunday, August 15, 2021 and he leaves to cherish his precious memories, his parents, his three daughters, his eight grandchildren, his eight siblings, and a host of nieces and nephews.
