Obituary

Joseph Roberts Jr. was born in Beaumont, TX on February 10, 1963. The loving husband to Traci Roberts and the son of Joseph Roberts Sr. and Genevieve Matthews. he was the younger brother to Deborah Frank, Gwen Mosley(N.J.), Diana Roberts, and older brother to Mary Roberts.

Joseph attended South Park High School, graduating in 1981. After enlisting into the army, he transitioned into the Air Force where he served a total of 4 years. Thereafter, he joined the OKC Fire Department in 1988 where he committed to 20 years of service.

He was passionately driven to continue forward with his journey of personal growth and earned his massage therapy license. After working as a massage therapist for a couple of years he continued with his education and earned his B.S. in multidisciplinary studies from the University of Central Oklahoma in 2018. He also earned his boilers license and became certified as an HVAC technician.

He was a devoted, loving, and supportive father of 3, to Akilah Samantha Roberts, Matthew Omari Malik Roberts, and Rachel Deburaha Roberts. He was a provider, a hard worker, but also an adventurous and fun loving spirit. He was a wise and spiritual man who was an avid reader, lover of old school music, and a man of strong faith.

Those who knew him called him Joe or JoJo. A man of confidence and strength who knew he was good looking and no one could tell him otherwise. Having a family of his own was always an accomplishment for him. Being the provider and protector was his number one priority. he was heavily involved in the lives of his loved ones. He was a genuine and kind spirit.
