Psalm 23

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

Obituary

Ora Lee Harrington was born November 7, 1939 to Lillie Mae Gray and Charley Johnson, the middle of 3 children. She was raised in Popular Bluff, Missouri by her grandmother, Martha Law. At the age of 16, she went to live with her father in Benton Harbor, Michigan where she graduated from Benton Harbor High School June 4, 1958. By the age of 19, she moved to St. Louis to be with her mother where she gave birth to her twins, Theresa and Tyrone Johnson. Shortly after the birth of her twins, she relocated to Davenport, Iowa and married Eugene Lee Harrington in her early 20s and had 6 more children (Kevin, Michael, Maxine, Troy, Glen, and Todd Harrington).

Ora gave her life to Christ as a young adult. She would be at the church as often as she could when the doors of the church were open. Under the leadership of the late A.L. Boyd and Bishop Anderson, she attended Pentecostal Church of God for 38 years where she served as a Sunday school teacher, radio host to spread the gospel, and an evangelist.

Ora always had an encouraging word and believed that you are never too old to learn. Always being of service, she retired as an instructor at the Handicap Development Center in Davenport, Iowa. After the passing of her ex-husband in 2006, she relocated to Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. While in Oklahoma City, she joined Greater First Deliverance Temple under the direction of Bishop Vanuel Charles Little Sr. and Suffragan Bishop Vanuel Charles Little Jr. where she continued her journey as a minister.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Lillie Mae Gray and Charley Johnson, ex-husband, Eugene Harrington, sister, Ruby Culberson, and son, Kevin Harrington.

Ora taught her children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren the importance of keeping God first. She is survived by her brother Charles (Helen) Johnson, and children, Theresa (Nunn) Johnson of St. Louis, MO, Tyrone (Alicia) Johnson of St. Louis, MO, Michael (Michelle) Harrington of Atlanta, GA, Maxine (Carlos) Hopkins of Oklahoma City, OK, Troy Harrington of Davenport, IA, Charles Harrington of Herlong, CA, Todd (Angela) Harrington of Oviedo, FL, 21 grandchildren, 16 great grandchildren, and a host of family friends.
