

SAVANNAH LILLY WILSON

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard him call;
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work and play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way;
I found that place at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared a laugh, a kiss;
Ah yes, these things, I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savoured much;
Good friends, good time, a loved ones touch.
Perhaps my time seems all too brief;
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now,
He set me free

Obituary

Savannah Lilly Wilson was born on September 9th, 1939 to Johnnie Leroy Morris and Hannah Lillian Morris of Arcadia, Oklahoma. She lost her battle with cancer on September 6th' 2021 and peacefully the Lord received her spirit.

She was the second eldest of three children whom she preceded in death, her older brother Johnnie Norman Morris and her younger sister Christine Lee Spicer.

In 1957 she was married to Freddie Ogles and from that union she had three children; Darrell Dewayne Ogles, Kendell Norris Ogles and Dianse Elaine Ogles, whom she preceded in death.

In 1971 she married Freeman Wilson, whom she preceded in death, and from that union she had one child Antaiwan (Tony) Demond Wilson and gained four more boys and one girl. Freeman Wilson Jr., Donald James Wilson, Michael Wilson, whom she preceded in death, Paul Arthur Wilson, and Lisa Hall.

Upon the death of her daughter Dianse Elaine Ogles, she took in and raised her grandson Dewayne (Pumpkin) Kendell Ogles.

In 1955 she attended Dunbar High School in Arcadia, Oklahoma. After leaving school she started her life in the workforce at Ramada Inn working alongside her younger sister as housekeepers. She then went on to work for Western Electric/AT&T/Lucent Technologies as a Production Technician and retired 32 years later. Savannah enjoyed cooking for her entire family. One of the many ways she showed her love. Her favorite hobby was sewing. She made many of her own outfits, valences and curtains.

She also consistently gave contributions to St. Jude Children's Hospital.

The memory of her will be cherished by her surviving family members; her son Darrell Dewayne Ogles, his wife Debra Ogles and two grandchildren, her son Kendell Norris Ogles, his wife Cathy Ogles, her son Antaiwan Demond Wilson, her grandson Dewayne Kendell Ogles and one great grandchild, her step son Paul Arthur Wilson, his wife Marsha Wilson, two grandchildren and five great grandchildren, her step daughter Lisa Hall, one grandchild and one great grandchild. Her niece Torrevett Williams.

She is also survived by one sister-in-law, Laura Ann Morris and two daughter-in-laws, four grandchildren, and four great grandchildren, 6 nieces, and many other relatives and many friends whom she loved.

Acknowledgements

The family of Savannah Wilson would like to thank everyone who kept my mom in their thoughts and prayers and everyone who gave a helping hand in her care. I would like to especially thank the ladies of Integris Hospice Care, Stacey and Janna. Especially Janna who was going through her own difficult time with the loss of her father. Thank you so much for your time and service.
