Obituary

On July 17, 1950, Ronald Warren (R.W.) Geionety in Lawton, OK to George and Kathleen Geionety.

As a child, R.W. observed his father painting war dancers displaying brilliant tribal colors. R.W.'s love for his father's painting ignited his own desire to express his creativity. His style was similar to his father; however, he possessed a distinct and unique flair which would later gain him recognition internationally as a renowned Kiowa Artist.

R.W. enlisted in the United States Marine Corps in 1968. R.W.'s passion for painting was acknowledged by the U.S. Marine Corps. While serving, he was appointed to redesign the Third Marine Corps B Company Division logo in Okinawa, Japan.

In 1975, R.W. married the lovely Lora Mae (Honeycutt) Geionety. This union was blessed with three children Michael, Melanie and Kyle.

R.W.'s exceptional artistic talents won the coveted "Grand Award" honor for his painting at the 2012 Red Earth Festival.

R.W. enjoyed playing the guitar, fishing, drawing, painting, reading the Word of God and spending quality time with family.

He is preceded in death by his father (George), mother (Kathleen), daughter (Melanie Byrd), son (Kyle), and brothers (Keith Cobatain, Jerry Geionety, and Charles Geionety).

He leaves to cherish his memories: son (Michael), son-in-law (Jontue Byrd), granddaughters (April Geionety, Raine Geionety, and JonNaye Byrd), grandsons (Michael Geionety and Brian Castillo), sisters (Edwina Amos, Mary Lou Gamble, Leta Flute, and Nancy Geionety), brother (Willard Geionety), and close friend (Vida Hokeah).
