Obituary

Carrie Mae Green was born September 22, 1955 in Lawton, Oklahoma to Joe Lee Green and Gladys Green. Carrie was raised in Oklahoma City with her brothers and sisters.

Carrie graduated from Northeast High School and later attended Oklahoma City Community College to become a nurse. She was employed at St. Anthony Hospital. She was the proud mother of three: Lashon Greene, Charles Greene and Ricky Tippens (deceased).

Carrie was baptized in 1967 at Rising Star Baptist Church at the age of 11. Following in her mother's footsteps, she led her family to St. Mark Baptist Church. Carrie loved the Lord and her faith was strong.

Carrie enjoyed talking on the phone with family and friends. She was the life of any party and enjoyed fellowship and good times with all. She was an avid OU and Dallas Cowboys fan.

She was preceded in death by her father, Joe Lee Green; her mother, Gladys Green; brother, Virgil Cooper; sisters Esther L. Watson and Joeline Broadus and her youngest son, Rickey Tippens.

She leaves to cherish her loving memory, husband, James L. Wood; one strong and beautiful daughter; Lashon Greene, one handsome son; Charles Greene (Candice); five grandchildren; Daviyon, Dylan, Michael, Mariah and Maxton; siblings; Herman Green (Marsha), Kelvin Green (Sandra), Bonnie Sheffield (Richard), Verdell Nichols, Teresa Willis, Carrie Hill, all of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma and Tinnice Patton of Nashville, Tennessee; a host of nieces, nephews, and other family members along with friends she met throughout her life.
