IF YOU COULD SEE ME NOW

If you could see me now, you wouldn't shed a tear.
Though you may understand why I'm no longer here.
Remember my spirit, that's the real me.
I'm still very much alive, oh, if you could only see!
I've beheld our Father's face. I've touched my Savior's hand.
The angels all rejoiced as I entered the Promised Land.
Beyond the gates of pearl, I walk on golden streets.
I've touched the walls of jasper, dipped my foot in the crystal sea.
The beauty is beyond words, nothing can compare.
I've even seen your mansion; someday I will meet you there.
Allow Jesus to be your guide, His word will show you the way.
So, please, don't cry! We will meet again someday!

LIFE REFLECTIONS

for

MAE

Mae Frances Davis was born on April 26, 1923 in Ardmore, OK. She was the sixth child born to Walter and Margaret (Franklin) Stubblefield. Mae lost her mother at an early age and was raised by her Aunt Ollie McKerson.

Mae was baptized at a early age and sang in the choir. She went to Dunbar Elementary and Douglass High School in Ardmore OK.

Since all of her younger siblings were raised by different family members they always got together for dinner on Sundays.

On November 2, 1943, she married Roger Lee Davis Sr. and from this union they had nine children. Mae worked for Gilt Edge and Fresh Made Foods.

Mae was a member at St. Luke Baptist Church since the late seventies. Mae's greatest enjoyments was babysitting her grandchildren and visiting her baby brother Charles in Tacoma, Washington.

Mae will be greatly missed by those who loved her. She was called home to be with the Lord on November 12, 2021. She was 98 years old.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Roger Lee Davis Sr., daughter, Inez L. Taylor, sons, Roger Lee Davis Jr., Ezell Davis and Kenneth L. Davis Sr. Her sisters, Golda Skelton, Florence Walker, and Mae T. Stubblefield, brothers Walter, James, and Cecil Stubblefield, Her best friend Frankie Jordan.

She leaves to cherish her life, two daughters, Annetta Wickware and Gwen (Richard) Naff. Three sons, Larry (Cheryl) Davis, Bruce Davis, and Donald Davis of Oklahoma City. A host of nieces, nephews, grandchildren, great grandchildren, great great grandchildren, cousins, Sam Hankins (Best Friend) and friends.
