Obituary

Darnell Anderson “Dee” was born on September 28, 1983, the loving son of Vanessa Anderson Davis and Theodore Threatt of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

Darnell accepted Christ at an early age and attended St. Mark Missionary Baptist Church under the direction of Reverend Oscar Adams.

Darnell attended John Marshall High School where he graduated in 2003.

Darnell was employed with ETI, until he was medically unable to work as a painter.

Following a lengthy illness, at the age of 38, God called Darnell home on November 16, 2021. He leaves to cherish his memory, his loving mother, Vanessa Davis and father, Theodore Threatt, both of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; his daughter, Aamerie Anderson of Glen Heights, Texas; his sons, Dariell Anderson and Jayel Fitzpatrick, both of Texas; his loving grandmother, Betty Anderson Robinson of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; his aunt, LaDonna Anderson of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; his sisters, Jaleesa Davis, Tori Wallace of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; his brothers, Calvin Davis, D’Angelo Threatt and Theodore Threatt, and Joseph Evans; and a host of cousins, uncle, relatives and friends.

Darnell was a great son, loving brother, and awesome father. He loved and treasured his children, and provided unconditional love. When they moved to Texas, he would accompany his children to their sports games, etc., he would make sure he was there. I’m very proud to say that Darnell was my son. We will miss you very much! Go with God my Baby!

*Love,
Mom*
