Obituary

Minnie Vera Weatherall was born on July 23, 1938 as Glen Doris Jones in Oklahoma City, OK to Lee B. Jones and Mavis Smith.

She was one of 13 siblings, joined church at an early age, and attended Douglass High School.

Minnie married the love of her life, Joe Kenneth Weatherall, and God blessed their union with eight children — three sons and five daughters.

Minnie worked in the health care field for many years. Upon retirement, she opened her in-home childcare and became a foster parent. She was known for her artistic skills of crocheting, cooking, and for her motherly advice, discipline, and wisdom.

Minnie was preceded in death by her father, Lee B. Jones; mother, Mavis Smith; son, Marcus Lynn Weatherall; daughter, Lisa R. Maybank; sisters: Eva Mae Edmonson, Deloris Thompson, and Benita Wilson; brothers, Oran Jones and Richard Jones.

Fallen Limb

Author Unknown

A limb has fallen from the family tree.
I keep hearing a voice that says, "Grieve not for me"
Remember the best times, the laughter, the song.
The good life I lived while I was strong.

Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you.
Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through.
My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest.
Remembering all, how I truly was blessed.

Continue traditions, no matter how small.
Go on with your life, don't worry about falls
I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin.
Until the day comes we're together again.
