Acknowledgments
 The family of Felicia D. Smith extends sincerest thanks to each of you for the love and concern you have shown during this difficult time. Your calls, cards, and especially your prayers have sustained and encouraged us in ways that words cannot adequately express. We also extend special thanks to our aunt Faye Guy as well our "Granny" Barnett.

Please drive with your lights on for safety and fasten your seat belts.

Felecia Dorcell Smith

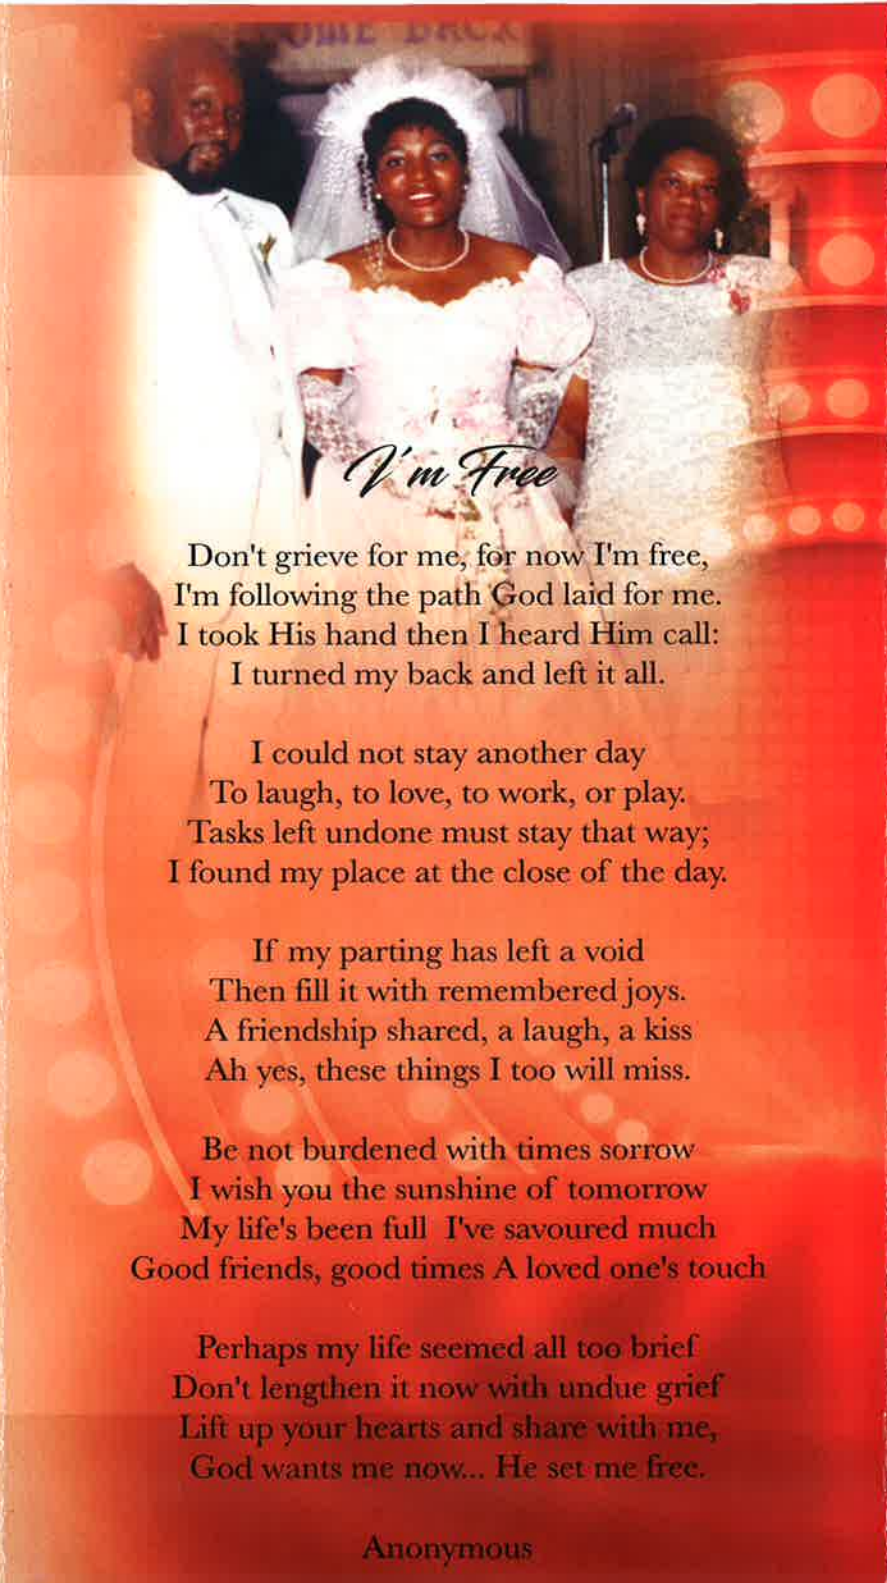

Felecia Dorcell Smith was born on August 29, 1960, in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, to Barrie Montgomery and Martha Mae Conley. She was raised in a loving home with her grandparents, Woodrow and Lola Conley and a host of aunts who were more like sisters.

Felecia accepted Christ at an early age and was baptized at the Hillwood Baptist Church under the leadership of Pastor O.B. Burrough. She was a faithful member and sang in the young adult choir. Felecia later united with the Greater Mount Olive Baptist Church under the leadership of the late Pastor A. Glenn Woodberry and Pastor Ray Douglas. Felecia served on the usher board and was a faithful prayer warrior on the daily church prayer call. She remained faithful until her health declined.

Felecia graduated from Star Spencer High School in 1978. She was a proud bobcat and was crowned SSSHS Basketball Queen the year she graduated. Felecia was a devoted and proud mother of six children, she also helped raise a grandson. She was a phenomenal cook, she loved working in her yard, hosting holiday and family gatherings, watching basketball, however her true joy was spending time with her children and grandchildren. Felecia retired from Hertz after 29 years of dedicated service and decided to take a leap of faith to open her own childcare center, "Lil' Kings and Queens Childcare". She dedicated 13 years as the owner and operator.

Felecia was preceded in death by her grandparents, Woodrow and Lola Conley, grandmother, Viola Henderson, grandfather Aaron Boston, stepfather James Barnett, stepmother Geraldine Montgomery, and her longtime friend, Willie Smith.

She leaves to cherish her memories, her mother Martha Barnett, Spencer, Oklahoma, her father Barrie Montgomery, Denver, Colorado, six children, Rodney "Terrell" Conley, Kenisha West, Alisha West, Kenneth "Aaron" West (Priscilla), Raymond Prather Jr., and Daymond Prather, 13 grandchildren, four great-grandchildren, four sisters, Deborra Payne, Spencer, Oklahoma, Saritha (Glen) Tunley, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, Myla Gittens, Denver, Colorado, Adrienne Montgomery, Denver, Colorado and a host of aunts, one uncle, nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand then I heard Him call:
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work, or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way;
I found my place at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joys.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times sorrow
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow
My life's been full I've savoured much
Good friends, good times A loved one's touch

Perhaps my life seemed all too brief
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief
Lift up your hearts and share with me,
God wants me now... He set me free.
