Golden Girls

My Golden Girls
They mean the world to me
Where would I be?
Without their wisdom and advice and especially their love
Their love wraps me like a glove

My Golden Girls
Have taught me to be a Woman
A Lady
A Wife
And a Mother

My Golden Girls
Have helped me through life like no other
They taught me about the love of a man
And if it ain't right, move on . . . If you can

My Golden Girls
Have seen
The Good Times . . . The Bad Times . . .
The Laughter . . . The Tears . . .
Yeah . . . They have seen a lot over the years

My Golden Girls
Have seen loved one and friends come and go
But have not let that stop no show

My Golden Girls
Sometimes awaken with aches and pains
but each a new day is a reason to stay

My Golden Girls
On Sunday morning still dress to the nines
On Sunday afternoon still put out a spread to dine
Feed the whole neighborhood and never miss a beat

My Golden Girls
God has blessed me to be a part of you and have you a part of me

In Loving Memory

Vivian Orcella (Franklin) Jones was born on October 25, 1930 in Jones, Oklahoma to Charles and Gladys Franklin. She was the sixth of seven children born to this union. Vivian was the last of seven siblings of Charles and Gladys to pass on to glory. Her sisters: Blanche Davis, Sarah Mae Traylor, Dorothy Smiley, Mildred Bates and brothers: Carl Franklin and Ernest Lee preceded her.

Vivian was united in marriage to Blanton G. Jones and to this union four children were born. Blanton preceded her in death in 1989.

Vivian graduated from Dunbar High School and graduated from Nursing School with a LPN License and worked and retired from the VA Hospital.

She accepted faith at an early age and was a founding member of Central Baptist Church of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. Vivian had a very strong faith in God. She was Central's Church Clerk, faithful servant and the oldest member for many years.

Vivian departed this earth peacefully in her sleep on December 16, 2021, at 8:32 a.m. She leaves behind to celebrate her life, Loretta Talley (Eugene), Laureen Jones, Bryan Jones, all of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; Lynette Jones (Darryl) of Sanford, Florida; grandchildren: Diahanna Foster (Kevin of San Antonio, Texas; Harold Denson of The Colony, Texas; Kanitha Berry (Earl) of Midwest City, Oklahoma; Bryan Jones, Jr. and Jeremiah Jones, both of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

*My Mom was a quiet and gracious woman.
A wonderful Mother, Wife, Sister, very gentle and caring to this around her.*

*Such a light cannot be darkened,
It will glow forever in every person she touched.*

*We will miss you,
But you will always be in our heart till we meet again.*

Me*

A Silent Tear

Just close your eyes and you will see
All the memories that you have of me
Just sit and relax and you will find
I'm really still there inside you mind
Don't cry for me now I'm gone
For I am in the land of son
There is no pain, there is no fear
So dry away that silent tear
Don't think of me in the dark and cold
For here I am, no long old
I'm in that place that's filled with love
Known to you all, as "up above"
