

In Loving Memory of My Beautiful Mother

God saw you getting tired,
and a cure was not to be.
So He put His arms around you,
and He whispered, "Come to Me."
With tearful eyes we watched you,
we watched you fade away.
Although we loved you dearly,
We could not make you stay.
A Golden Heart stopped beating,
Hard-working hand at rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us,
He chose to take the best.
It's lonesome here without you,
we miss you more each day.
Life doesn't seem the same,
Since you've gone away.
When days are sad and lonely,
and everything goes wrong,
we seem to hear you whisper,
"Cheer up and Carry on."
Each time we see your picture,
you seem to smile and say,
"Don't cry, I'm in God's hands,
we'll meet again someday!"

Obituary

Rhonda L. McDonald was born in Kansas City, Missouri on September 8, 1957. Rhonda was the eldest daughter of six children born to John L. Johnson and Louise V. Rhodes-Johnson.

Rhonda graduated from Northwest Classen High School in Oklahoma City in 1975. Rhonda worked for many years at Remington Park, however, Rhonda found her professional calling in retail with Texaco Starmart. Rhonda obtained the rank of management running her own location for over 15 years, before health concerns forced her into early retirement.

Rhonda was united in marriage to Mark Edward McDonald, Sr., and two children were born to this union, Mark Edward McDonald, Jr. and Derrick Devon McDonald. Rhonda also had a third child, Jeffery L. McDonald later in life.

Rhonda is preceded in death by her father, John L. Johnson; her mother, Louise V. Johnson; two brothers, Van Edward Johnson and Paul Curtis Johnson; one sister, Cathy Lynn Johnson, and one daughter-in-law, Tyeasha McDonald.

Rhonda passed away on December 19, 2021. She leaves behind to cherish her memory, three children: Mark McDonald, Derrick McDonald and Jeffery McDonald; two brothers: John L. Johnson, Jr. and Michael Allen (Sharon) Johnson. She also leaves behind two sisters: Kerri Harkey and Anita L. Parker-Johnson; a loving niece, Naukeshia Johnson; nine grandchildren and one great grandchild; and a host of other relatives and friends.

For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand.

I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith:

Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only,

but unto all them also that love his appearing. - II Timothy 4:6-8
