In Loving Memory

Kenric Jermayne Brown aka "K-Dawg" was born to Billy and Linda Brown on August 20, 1978 in Idabel, Oklahoma.

At an early age, Kenric played baseball, basketball and football. He attended Idabel High School and graduated in 1994.

He later moved to Oklahoma City, Oklahoma where he met Monique Sadler and one son was born, IsReal "Izzy" Brown. He later met Erika Porter and they have one daughter, Jaiden Brown. Kenric also have two lovely daughters, Gianna Brown and Zana Lia Ali Brown.

Kenric was musically inclined which gave him a love for singing and also for poetry. He had a passion of working in automotive detailing.

He was a very loving and caring person with a beautiful smile even as his health was failing.

In April 2017, Kenric joined Emmanuel Tabernacle in Oklahoma City.

Kenric was preceded in death by his father, Billy W. Brown; maternal grandparents, Olenda and Frances Scales; paternal grandparents, Artis Brown and Ruby D. Hall; and uncle, Clarence Scales.

Kenric leaves to cherish his memory, his mother, Linda Johnson; three brothers, Billy C. Brown, C.B. Corley and Derrion Harris; two sisters, Belinda perry and Sherika Hawkins; his children, IsReal "Izzy" Brown, Jaiden Brown, Gianna Brown and Zana Lia Ali Brown. Also cherishing his memory; his grandfather, R.D. Clayton; six aunts, Bobbie (Edward) Mathews, Erma (Marshal) Richardson and Loretta Riley, Reynelda (Patrick) Johnson, Catrina Clayton and Bonnie Winston; one uncle, Roy (Donna) Spagner; a host of other relatives and friends.
