Reflections of a Beautiful Life

Alicia Blanche Davis Fountain transitioned to the Father on Saturday, December 25, 2021. She had journeyed 52 years in an earthly life and has now begun her eternal life with Jesus.

She is the daughter of Joshua Davis II and Alice Strong Simmons. She was born in Lawton, Oklahoma on May 16, 1969. Both of her parents currently live in the Oklahoma City Metropolitan Area.

Alicia accepted Christ at a very young age and has worked in several Baptist churches throughout her life but was currently a member of the Northeast Missionary Baptist Church where she served on the Usher Board prior to moving to Houston, Texas. She returned to Oklahoma City in March 2021, and again began to attend services at her church.

Alicia graduated from Northeast High School in May 1987. She attended Langston University and received a Bachelor's of Liberal Studies in 1992, and later returned to Langston and received an Associate Degree in Child Development. She was an avid lover of children and taught in various elementary schools in the Oklahoma City Public School District. She owned E'ddie's Friends Child Development Center on North Britton Road. This past semester she was hired as a Kindergarten Teacher at Crutcho Public Schools on Northeast 23rd Street in Oklahoma City. Alicia stated many times that she had found her career home at Crutcho and would retire from their school system. She loved her Administrators, Mr. Betheny and Mr. Perry and adored her 26 Kindergarten Friends. Mr. Betheny commented Monday that "Fountain was born to teach and she loved her students and the entire school loved her." No better testament could have been made. When Alicia loved she was all in.

Alicia's survivors include her mother, Alice Strong Simmons and her committed partner, Calvin Whittaker, Oklahoma City, her father and second mother, Joshua and Victoria Davis, Oklahoma City, her brothers, Joshua Davis III, Dominick Jayson Davis, Oklahoma City, Jason Simmons of Gainesville, Florida and her sister Lisa Littles Jackson, Oklahoma City, One daughter E'ddie LaDell Strong Fountain of Houston, Texas, two sons Darvel Fountain II, Choctaw and Tyler Reuben Fountain, Canute; five grandchildren – Alyssia Gabrielle Davis Moreland, Prestyn Gacbryl Davis and Aaryn Elysse Chaunt'e Taylor of Houston, Texas, Tyler Reid Fountain, Canute and Nevaeh Jade Fountain, Choctaw.

She also leaves her two nephews and a niece, Tye Maceo Davis, Kyoto, Japan, Neia Ni'cole Knox, Oklahoma City and Cameron Davis, St. Louis, MO, as well as a plethora of uncles, aunts, cousins and dear, dear friends throughout Oklahoma and the country.

Our Wonderful Alicia

Though we earthly beings are sad today, Heaven's angels are smiling as our wonderful Alicia joins their ranks. Alicia Blanche Fountain was the most lovingly infectious and kind person you could ever wish to know. She loved the Lord, so we know that absent from the body means present with the Lord. She is with the Father and our other family saints singing and 'rejoicing and looking forward to all of us joining her in that great gettin' up morning.

"Now is the hour when we must say goodbye,
Tho we are parting, memories will not die.
All through the years, wherever we may be,
sweet, sweet Alicia, we'll remember thee."
