Obituary

Clifford Woodard was born October 17, 1945 to Arthur and Willie Mae Woodard. He grew up in Hobart, Oklahoma where he attended Hobart High School and was drafted into the United States Army at the age of 17 and served in the Vietnam War. He received a Purple Heart among other awards before he was honorably discharged.

In his later years, Clifford was an active member of the People's Church in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. He enjoyed playing golf, cooking, and participating in social activities with his church and golf club.

Clifford was preceded in death by his parents, sons, Nakita, Alonzo, brothers, Nathaniel Woodard, Arthur Roy and Jarvis Woodard; one sister, Yvonne Woodard.

He leaves to cherish his memory his daughters, Deanna (Maurice) and Latisha Woodard; sisters, Sandra Kay Norris, Betty Jo Patterson; brother, Richard Woodard; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and many loved ones and friends.

I thought of you with love today,
but that was nothing new.
I thought about you yesterday and days before that to.
I think of you in silence,
I often speak your name
All I have are memories and your picture in a frame.
Your memory is our keepsake,
With which I'll never part god has you in His keeping,
I have you in my heart.
