

Answering the Call

The day I answered God's call I knew it was going to be a hard decision. But I know that God makes no mistakes the choice to leave my loved ones on earth or follow my Heavenly Father was easy.

Although I am not physically with you my love and spirit will carry and fulfill you when you need me.

I am now a better me, which will help you be a better you as we are one. I will never let you go on earth or in heaven.
