Velma L. Mack

Mrs. Velma Mack was a devoted member of Greater St. James Baptist Church of South Oak Cliff in Dallas TX.

She married the love of her life, Will H. Mack in October of 1944, where they began raising their family in Atlanta TX. She was a loving wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, great-great-grandmother and a sister and friend to all.

She loved her family with all of her heart but she loved the Lord more. She spent a lot of time singing in the choir and serving as a Deaconess. Our "BB" was known for wearing very extravagant hats. She was a bonafide "Diva" in her own rights.

Mrs. Mack was a pillar in the community. She spent over 3,000 hours volunteering with the Red Cross.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Will H. Mack; her parents, Will and Luedonia Mack; two sons, Willie Mack Jr. and Willie Joe Mack; three sisters, O'Dell Warren, O'Dean Tatum and Ester Hogan; and one brother, Joe Daniel Mack.

She leaves to cherish her fond memories, one daughter, Betty (Charles) Spencer of Oklahoma City; daughter-in-law, Willie Mae Mack of Detroit; two sons, Rev Eric (Cynthia) Mack and Johnny K. Mack all of Dallas; grandsons, Undra Mack, Kevin (Courtney) Mack, Keyona (Tahib) Barnes all of Detroit; Michael (Yvette) Spencer of New Albany; Mark (Bernice) Spencer of Lathrop CA; Sonia (Thomas) Lawrence of Oklahoma City. She was blessed with 28 great-grandchildren and 7 great-great-grandchildren along with a host of family and friends too numerous to name but yet not forgotten.
