Obituary

Clyde Lewis departed this life on January 12, 2022 surrounded by family. Mr. Lewis was born on December 13th, 1940, to Bennie Lee Lewis and Sullivan Lewis in Long Branch, Texas. Where he attended school at Minden High School. Clyde accepted Jesus Christ at an early age at the Pine Hill Church The Living GOD in Pine Hill, Texas. After school, Clyde later moved to Oklahoma City in the 1950s with his uncle Daniel Webster Hall who he thought highly of and taught him many things about life.

Years later, he soon met and married Beretha Sancho in 1967. In this union, he became father to his loving daughter, Cheryl Cochran. Stepfather, to Gerald Sancho. And uncle to his loving niece, Barbara Ann Garfield. He loved traveling with his sister Nancy and trying different foods. A Kansas City CHIEFS fan, he collected t-shirts and caps. Clyde enjoyed doing many things such as baking, cooking, and eating soul food. He also had a passion for farming and loved fishing with his brother Oreelious and grandchildren.

He was employed by both The City of Oklahoma City and Brown's Bakery for 42 years before he begin his retirement.

Clyde Lewis is preceded in death by his wife Beretha Lewis, of over 46 years. His brothers: Oreelious Lewis, L.D Lewis. His Sisters: Lovie "Doris" Lewis Woodfork, Linda Faye & Brenda Mae Lewis.

He leaves his Cherished Memories and Love to - Clive and Cheryl Cochran, Barbara Ann Garfield, and Gerald Sancho. His three sisters: Arnie 'Ree' Fletcher and Nancy "Lee" Thomas of Kansas City, MO. Mary Watson of Lufkin, TX. Three brothers: Melvin Lewis (Rinalda) of Morrisville, North Carolina. Mervin E. Lewis (Sharon) of Raytown, MO. And Charles Ray Lewis of Mt. Enterprise, TX. And his host of nieces, nephews, grandchildren and friends.
