Obituary

Margaret Ann Adair Winston was born April 15, 1941 in Harrah, OK. She was the second child born to Raymond L. Adair, Sr. and Marguerite Shaw Adair. She grew up in Jones, Oklahoma.

She graduated from Jones High School in 1959. She attended Draughon School of Business graduating in 1960 with a degree in secretarial services. Margaret began her office career with the Dept. of Human Services in OKC. In 1964, she became the first African American to work in the business office of ITT Continental Baking Co., OKC, OK. In 1969, she stopped working for a few years to be a homemaker. The final position of her career was Budget Coordinator for Oklahoma City Public Schools from which she retired in 1998.

Margaret married John C. Hill, Jr., on November 19, 1960. Three children were born to this union, Diana, John and Denice Michelle. Their marriage ended in divorce. On July 16, 1969 she was united in marriage with the love of her life Alonzo Winston. This union added two more children to the family, Karen and Melissa.

Margaret was an excellent baker, seamstress, a loving wife, mother and grandmother. She was a sounding board to many. Her strength of character and wisdom was relied on by her family and many others. In her lifetime she used her talents to help others by making drill team uniforms, wedding dresses, and delicious cakes. She specialized in wedding cakes. She also served as girl scout and boy scout troop masters.

Margaret accepted Christ as a child while attending Salem Baptist Church. In 1957 she moved her membership to Mt. Moriah Baptist Church where she remained a faithful member until her death. She served as Financial Secretary for nearly 40 years. She also made new drapes and along with her husband reupholstered the pews for the new church location.

Margaret was preceded in death by her parents Raymond and Marquerite Adair, Sr., her husband Alonzo Winston, her brother Raymond Adair, Jr., granddaughter DeAndrea Hill and brother in law Joseph Edwards.

She leaves to cherish her memory, her sister Madeline Edwards; children Diana Hill Ballard, John (Naomi) Hill, Denice Michelle Hill, Karen (Mike Cox) Winston and Melissa Winston; grandchildren Douglas, Stephanie, Joseph, Ryan and Kyuann; fourteen great grandchildren and one great-great grandson; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
