

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard His call.

I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joys.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow.
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I've savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts, and peace to thee.
God wanted me now,
He set me free.

Obituary

Rueben Deraymond Morrison was born on July 26, 1959 to Ruby Jean and Bobby Dan Morrison in Muskogee, Oklahoma. He was the first of eight children. His family moved to Oklahoma City where they were raised in a God fearing home. Rueben went on to graduate from Southeast High School and eventually retired from Lucent Technologies as a supervisor.

Rueben was united in holy matrimony to Tena Hicks, February 14, 1984. Though they eventually ended in divorce, They were blessed with three children: Tennille (Jason Anderson), Ramell and Amber; four grandchildren: Makayla, Elijah, Mya and Jada. Rueben started his days with phone calls to each of his children as well as his daily scriptures.

Rueben was nicknamed “Rubio” and “Deraymond” by friends and family. He had an infectious personality and never knew a stranger. He had a close group of friends that he affectionately called the “Dog Pound.” He enjoyed fishing with his grandson, Elijah and attending Makayla’s and Mya’s sporting events. Rueben spent many hours walking and playing with his youngest granddaughter Jada. He loved spending time with family.

Rueben was called to his heavenly home on Friday, February 4, 2022. Rueben was preceded in death by both parents and brothers: Anthony Morrison and Rodderick Morrison.

Rueben’s precious memory will be cherished and celebrated by his loved ones; his only sister, Dwandolynn Morrison of Houston, Texas; his four brothers: Clark Stripling (Melva), Troy Dotson, Jr., Carlton Morrison (Yvette) and Damon Morrison (Stacey), all of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; his ex-wife, children and grandchildren, as well as a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.
