Obituary

William E. Brown, Jr. was born on July 1, 1965 in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma to William Brown, Sr. and Diane Brown. William passed away on February 2, 2022.

William began school at Western Village Elementary followed by Dewey and Harding Middle School. He graduated from Northeast High School where he was a proud Viking and an outstanding drummer in the Mighty Viking Marching Band. William was baptized and accepted Christ at an early age.

William had many talents; working as a cook at Flip's Italian restaurant and Construction. However, he was most proud of his employment as a Correctional Officer at Carver Transitional Center and the Oklahoma County Jail. He also had a great ear for music. William produced a number of songs for multiple artist.

He married Camille Dykes and of this union 3 children were born; Shaena, Shayla, and William Brown, III. William loved his family and cherished his friendships. He is preceded in death by his daughter Shaena Brown, father William Brown, Sr., grandparents Melvin and Rudy Renfron and great aunt Vivian White.

William leaves many to cherish his memory including his mother Diane Williams, Sisters Dione Smith (Chris), Christina Bennett, & Latresa Foster, Brother Edward Brown, children Shayla Brown, William Edward Brown, III (Monique), 4 grandsons; William IV, Darrien and Malik Brown, Khiry Price; 2 granddaughters Kamari and Ya'hira Ligons, niece Denae Smith and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and close friends.
