Obituary

Jon Kelly Stallings was born in Ardmore, Oklahoma on December 9, 1944. He took his last breath with his wife at his side while surrounded by their loving children on February 6, 2022.

Jon graduated from high school at the Oklahoma Academy in Claremore, Oklahoma. He attended the University of Oklahoma for one year.

The following year he entered the United States Military Academy at West Point in New York. Jon was in B-2 Company where he bonded with his classmates who became brothers for life and is now with some of them who left this world before him. He joined the Long Gray Line together with his band of brothers at West Point in the Class of 1968.

Jon served his country during the Vietnam War as a Screaming Eagle with the 101st Airborne. He left the war as a Captain and was awarded a Bronze Star, an Army Commendation Medal, a Vietnam Campaign Medal, and a National Defense Service Medal.

He came back to Oklahoma to work at Power Equipment & Engineering earning various awards as an engineer.
