Obituary

Jasmine Nicole Smith was born on November 11, 1993 to James Thomas, Jr. and Belita Smith at the University Hospital in Oklahoma City, OK.

She spent her early years living in Guthrie with summer visits to her family in Texas. She attended high school in Oklahoma City and Frisco, Texas, before graduating in Guthrie. She made many friends along the way.

Her childhood and teens were spent traveling, whether it was school or with family. She attended SWOSU and then Heritage College where she graduated. Before a move to Phoenix, motherhood called and Jaycee was born. Quest later followed in Phoenix. She embraced motherhood and loved her children with all her heart. They were truly her pride and joy.

She was fiercely independent and took the initiative anytime she needed something done, to do it herself. She had an unquestioned work ethic and would work her way out of any jam. She was also compassionate, funny, and a great friend to have in your corner.

On February 24, 2022, God took Jasmine home to heaven.

She leaves behind her two children, Jaycee and Quest Johnson; her parents, Belita Beason and James Thomas, Jr.; her step-dad, Darrell Beason; her brothers, Jacob Thomas, Chance Allen, and Chase Thomas; her grandparents: Diann and Ronnie Jones, Eugene and Virginia Thomas; many aunts, cousins, and the countless friends she has made along the way.

Gone far too soon.
