CELEBRATING
THE Life AND Legacy OF

Acknowledgment

Perhaps you sent a lovely card, Or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a flower piece, If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you said the kindest words, that any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all, Just thought of us that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts,
We thank you so much, Whatever the part.

James Harvey Simmons

James Harvey Simmons was born on December 9, 1946 to Versie Lee Harris and Frank Simmons Jr. in Watonga, Oklahoma. He was the fourth child. His family moved to Oklahoma City where he was raised in a God-fearing home.

James attended Dunbar Elementary in Moon middle school, he attended Douglass high school. James enlisted in the US Army Reserve. After serving two years James returned home to Oklahoma.

James was united in marriage to his love Lenora Mae Simmons. The marriage ended after 34 years. They were blessed with three children, Kenneth James Simmons, Stacey Ann Simmons, and stepdaughter Charlesetta Jones whom he loved as his own daughter.

He loved and adored his grandchildren, Damon Morrison Jr, Kenneth Simmons Jr., Marcus Jones, Candice Wright, Donald Wright, and two great grandchildren, Cameron and Kaylee Wright.

James had a career in auto sales, but truck driving is what he loved most. After retiring, James spent time with family and friends, and going to church. James accepted Christ at an early age. He attended and served as a member of a Greater Gethsemane Baptist Church with his cousin Robert Freeman who he loved as a brother. James served as a deacon.

James was called home on Wednesday, March 2, 2022. James was preceded in death by both parents, and his sister Virginia Sue Ford.

James precious memories will be cherished by his sisters Vinita D. Simmons, and Louis M. Dale; his ex-wife, children, grandchildren, son-in-law Damone Morrison, as well as a host of nieces and nephews relatives and friends.
