In Loving Memory

Jannie Marie Coverdale was born January 30, 1938 in Kershaw County, South Carolina to Nancy Seegars and Will Brown. She attended Parker Gray High School in Alexandria VA, and married MSGT. Charles S. Coverdale, whom she met in FT. Belvoir, VA in 1957. She moved to Oklahoma City in 1969 with her four sons, working for and retiring from the City of Oklahoma City where she served in several Social Services capacities as well as a clerk at the Myriad Convention Center. Jannie was known for her compassion for young men, who she helped mentor throughout the years, and her willingness to open her heart and her home to several other “sons.” Jannie later worked tirelessly as a spokesperson and advocate for family members and victims of the Oklahoma City bombing, having lost two of her own grandchildren in that tragic event.

On March 2, 2022, our beloved Jannie departed this mortal life for her eternal life in heaven.

In remembrance of her, Jannie leaves two sisters, Brenda Strother and Jacquelyn Seegars, both of Alexandria, VA, and her brother Samuel Smith of Stafford, VA, four sons, Charles Coverdale Jr. (Lakeland, FL), Jeffrey E. Coverdale and his wife Lucille (Melbourne, FL), Duane Coverdale and his wife Carolyn (Milford, DE), and Adrian Candia and his wife Mariana (OKC, OK), 11 grandchildren, and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews and great grandchildren.

One quiet day the angels came
And took our mother far away
But in the stillness of the night
I could almost hear her say

My sons and daughters I will miss you
You mean so much to me
But Jesus called me to His side
In Heaven I will be

A place of God’s great beauty
No tears or earthly cares
Only peace and joy forever
And love beyond compare

So remember all the good times
Don’t think about the sad
Treasure all the special moments
Through the years we’ve always had

And if you trust in Jesus
I can promise this and more
You will get a hug from me someday
On heaven’s golden shore.
