Obituary

Diamane Shon'tae Walker, also known as "Peaches" was born on May 5, 1978 in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma to Dwayne Lamont Williams and Rosie Lee Walker. She was the second child born.

Diamane "Peaches" accepted Christ at an early age as her Lord and Savior. She attended Bethlehem Star Baptist Church, Joy Missionary Baptist Church, then moving on to settle at Great Fellowship Baptist Church. She always talked about God and all He had done for her.

Diamane "Peaches" attended Truman Elementary, Roosevelt Middle School, Northwest Classen High School and U.S. Grant High School where she completed. Diamane "Peaches" then went on to working for several hospitals and other places in Environmental services. She loved to clean and became one of the best Housekeepers at her job.

Diamane "Peaches" went on to meeting and marrying her special love, Kevin Gilbert who preceded her in death, the two of them were inseparable together. They also had a daughter out of this marriage, Armauni Gilbert. She also had a son before marriage, Najee Walker and one adopted son, Harold Jones.

Diamane "Peaches" had a crazy sense of humor that everybody loved. She was the type of person that will warm your heart if you were feeling down. She got along with most people she came in contact with rather they were good or bad. Diamane "Peaches" loved to hang out with family and friends, but most of all, she loved to sing and play bingo, these were her favorite things to do besides "scratching somebody scape." Diamane "Peaches" loved to help people even if it was her last she was giving up. Diamane "Peaches" was loved dearly and will truly be missed.

Diamane "Peaches" leaves to cherish one daughter, Armauni Gilbert; two sons: Najee Walker and Harold Jones; six sisters: TeaKema Walker, Ashley Lewis, Amandela Perry, Sebek Amun 'Tehu, Zoe Teref-Ta, and Amenti Amun 'Tehu; ten brothers: Frenadreus Walker, Dwayne Williams, Mario Williams, Jamal French, Quentin French, Nicholus Lytle, Shutef Taney, Heru Amun "Tehu, Serkh Amun 'Tehu; one stepsister, Stacia Lamar and one stepbrother, Don King.
