Obituary

Lynn Loquen McMorris was born in Manhattan, New York on August 31, 1951. He was raised by his parents Alvin Sr. and Stannie McMorris in the Bronx with his six siblings.

Lynn graduated from DeWitt Clinton High School in the Bronx in 1969. After graduation, he joined the United States Air Force, married, had children, and was stationed at Tinker Air Force Base in Oklahoma. After retiring from the Air Force, Lynn moved to Alabama for several years before settling back in Oklahoma after retiring from the Postal Service.

Lynn was active in his church and enjoyed spending time with his grandkids and family including his late wife's family in Alabama.

Lynn was preceded in death by his parents, Alvin Sr. and Stannie, and his second wife Loretta Pickens McMorris.

He leaves behind his siblings: Alvin McMorris Jr., Nathaniel McMorris, Br. Jude Leon McMorris, Denise McMorris Sanders, Dennis McMorris and Pamela McMorris Hicks; his children: Earl McMorris and Helen, Val McMorris and Chellie, Lynn McMorris, Yolonda McMorris and Terry Smith, Brian McMorris and Eileen, and their mother, Yvonne McMorris. Lynn also leaves behind eight grandchildren, Naomi, Breanna, Sianna, Mason, Terry, Kaitlynn, Thatcher and Daniel, two great grandchildren, Harrison and Eloise; many nieces, nephews, cousins, plus his late wife Loretta's loving family.
