Obituary

Reba Cheryl McKnight was born on March 17th, 1963 to Kenneth McKnight Sr. and Willie Mae Johnson on the home front in Crockett, Texas. Both preceded her in death. She also had two sisters whom preceded in death, Sharon Vernice McKnight and Dolleta Lanette (Wilson) Hill. She was raised in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma and Denver, Colorado. She accepted Christ at a young age and was baptized with her siblings at nine years old at Fifth Street Baptist Church. Reba was a member of Wildewood Baptist Church and enjoyed competing in Bible verse challenges. She later joined the Eastside Church of God. Reba went on to graduate from Central Innovative High School a year early with the class of 1980. She would go on to marry Gregory Houston in 1981. Reba brought three daughters into this world, Amber, Aiesha, and Sharon whom she loved dearly. She attended Rose State College, Oklahoma State University, and graduated from Francis Tuttle Vocational School with a certification in medical assisting. Reba was a very loving person who never met a stranger or person she couldn't share her light with. She loved her family and friends deeply. Reba was very family oriented and loved to look after her loved ones in times of need. She was always there to lend a listening ear and give sound advice. If she could help you in any way, she was on it! Throughout life and many struggles, she was still able to love on so many. Reba realized the importance of family and she took that seriously whether it was blood family or not. She enjoyed music, writing, reading, movies, traveling, and sharing laughter with family and friends. Reba lived in Oklahoma City most of her life, but also lived in Denver, Colorado, and Wichita Falls, Texas. She was a woman of many hats. She was skilled in electrical work, tax preparation, and medical assistance. Reba was loved by many and will be truly missed. Reba Cheryl left her earthly home on Monday April 4th, 2022. She leaves to cherish her memories, her three daughters, Amber Houston (Del City, OK), Aiesha Houston (Oklahoma City, OK), and Sharon Houston (Oklahoma City, OK). Her seven grandchildren, Arakwan, Sirvonte, Miyonne, Mailleah, Aamir, Syncere, and Aashiyana. Her siblings, Bobbie Allen (John) of Oklahoma City, Lee Alfred McKnight (Elaine) of Willis, Texas, Donnie McKnight of Oklahoma City, Kenneth McKnight Jr, (LaTonya) of Oklahoma City, Espaniola Bowen (Wade) of Midwest City, OK, Victoria McKnight of Oklahoma City, and Roderick McKnight (Tammy) of Oklahoma City, along with a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, family, and friends.

Poems:

Angel

Teardrops slow and steady
The pain so real and true
God took another angel, and that angel dear, was you
Angel wings upon the clouds your body softly sleeps
Hush now little angel
No more tears you have to weep
Little prayers are sent to you, the short life you led
Your family will never forget you, so rest your little head
I know God will look after you now you are truly alive
Your spirit soars beyond the moon your legacy will survive
You're beautiful, you're endless now stretch your wings and fly
You're loved by so many it will never be goodbye
Close your pretty eyes
No more tears just go and rest
Let your soul lie peacefully
We know you did your best

Gone but Not Forgotten

Don't think of her as gone away
Her journey's just begun
Life holds so many facets
This earth is only one
Just think of her as resting from the sorrows and the tears
In a place of warmth and comfort
Where there are no days and years
Think how she must be wishing that we could know today
Have nothing but our sadness can really pass away
And think of her as living in the hearts of those she touched
For nothing loved is ever lost
And she was loved so much
