Obituary

Vanessa Ann Williams was born October 13, 1973 in Oklahoma City OK. She was the only daughter of Cornell and Deborah Williams.

Her mother, father, maternal grandparents and paternal grandfather preceded her in death.

Vanessa was led to Christ at an early age. She attended Harrison Elementary School, Hoover Middle School and graduated from Putnam City North High School in 1991. After graduating, Vanessa attended Francis Tuttle Technology Center where she studied computers.

Vanessa married Micheal Williams on May 14, 2004. To this union there were three children: DaQuan, Destiny, and Daisha. Vanessa was employed by Integris Baptist Hospital for over 15 years. At the time of her death, she worked in retail at Walmart.

She was a loving, dedicated mother and wife. Vanessa was an avid reader and had quite a collection books she had read.

She leaves to cherish her memory, her husband, Micheal Williams; one son, Daquan Williams; two daughters, Destiny Williams and Daisha Williams; grandson, Elijah and granddaughter, Islah; brothers: Cornell Williams, Jr. (Julia), Dawon Lynn Williams, and Donald Richardson; paternal grandmother, Emma Knight; mothers and fathers-in-law, Wanda and Kenneth Bruner, Micheal and Judith Williams; a very special godmother, Christie Williams; special sisters and brothers, Kelli Statum and Kodi Statum (Carolyn); brothers-in-law, Pondell and Charles Williams; sister-in-law, Tiffany Jackson; and a host of uncles, aunts, nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
