Celebrating the Life of Isaiah Marshun Williams

Isaiah Marshun Williams was born in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma on February 28, 1992, to Joyce Marie Williams and Guy Fields. He departed us on April 3, 2022, to be with his heavenly Father. He will be preceded in death by his grandmother Anabelle Beavers and Doris Jean Williams, his mother, Joyce Marie Williams, two aunts Bertha Lee Williams and Ethel Lee Hooks-Williams, three uncles Harry Vernon Williams, John Williams, and Thomas Williams and two cousins, Terrie LaNette Williams, and Prentice Dennell Williams and his precious niece, D'Lia Edwards.

Isaiah Williams attended Star Spencer High school where he was a star football player, winning a championship ring. Isaiah was a quiet soul that loved his mother and enjoyed being around his family and friends. Known by some as Zell and to others as Baby Walnut. Being the baby of the family, Isaiah was often spoiled by his siblings; I guess you could say he was a mama's boy. And much like his mama, Isaiah never met a stranger. Often meeting new people on the long walks he enjoyed taking. He loved cracking jokes, making others laugh, enjoyed dancing, eating good food, entertaining the family, and especially loved hanging out with his male cousins. His spirit will forever soar like the true blue jay he was. Isaiah will be truly missed and never forgotten.

Isaiah Marshun Williams will leave behind to cherish and carry on his memories, sisters Trina Marie Brown and Ashston Marie Williams, brothers Marcus and Guy Fields, five niece D'Kayla Edwards, Aanaya, Amari, Ariyah Williams and Frankie Car, one nephew Rashad Phipps and a host of great aunts, uncles, cousins and close friends.
