

Alfred Lloyd Daniels

HIS STORY

Alfred L. Daniels was the first born of five children, in Kansas on August 26, 1954 as son of Audrey H. Daniels (Pass Christian, Mississippi) and Verdie M. Daniels (Idabell, Oklahoma) of Oklahoma City, OK.

In 1970 Alfred entered high school and was active in Douglass High School as a drummer and participated in the marching band. Even though he was the smallest guy, he yielded the biggest drum. He graduated from Douglass High School in 1972. He followed in his father's footsteps by joining the Army on August 30, 1972 and was honorably discharged on October 16, 1975. Again he looked to his father and became a local pick up & delivery driver and later transitioned as an owner operator, regional driver with Cardinal Logistics in Oklahoma City, Ok, determined to provide for his family until he departed. Alfred enjoyed being on the road (he lived his dream) but he was passionate about grilling, making homemade rolls and fishing with the family.

Alfred affectionally known as "pretty boy or Freddie-Pooh." He was an honest, loyal husband, father and friend known across the country to give his shirt off his back. He was the brightest light that will continue to shine on everyone he knew and loved. He was proceeded in death by his father Audrey Hardy Daniels.

Precious memories will be cherished by his wife, Janice-Bowen Daniels; mother Verdie M. Daniels; sisters Marcia E. Daniels, Regina Daniels and Audra L. Daniels; brother Reginald Daniels; his children; Terry Daniels, YaLuv Cornish (Corey)), Jermaine Bowen, Afton Daniels and Skylar Daniels of Oklahoma City, OK. His only granddaughter, Aniyah Clayton; of Oklahoma City, Ok.; a host of nieces and nephews, cousin's, family and friends.

He is known to have close high school friends; Gregory Bates, Donald Gaddis and Victor Daughtery.
