

If sunflowers grow in Heaven

If sunflowers grow in Heaven Ahayah
Please pick a bunch for me.

Place them in my sister's arms and tell her they are from me. Tell her that I love and miss her and when she turns to smile, place
a kiss on her cheek and hold her for a while.

Because remembering her is easy I do it
every day.

A special phrase she always says is "I'm grown". But there is an ache within my heart that will never go away. To my Gina girl, I love you sis forever and a day. I'm going to always look up in the sky and wish to see you, hold you, and to you again. It's going to be hard sis fried chicken will never be the same. Love you my sister Regina Day!

Obituary

God granted the gift of life to Regina Renae Day to Ricky Brothers and the late Charlene Day on January 7, 1973, at Mercy Hospital in Oklahoma City, Ok. She was a graduate of Jefferson High School located in Portland Oregon. In 2020, Regina relocated to Oklahoma to be closer to her family. On June 2, 2022, in Henryetta, OK God called his daughter home. Her hobbies were coloring, listening to music, and watching old movies like gun smoke, perry mason, and green acres. She loved eating fried chicken and her favorite thing to say was "I'm grown!"

Preceding Regina in death are her grandparents and her mother Charlene Day.

Survivors include her father Ricky Brothers of Portland, OR adopted mother Evalene Marks of Oklahoma City, OK sisters Sherrie Day, Stephanie Dickerson and husband Charles, and Aelia Brothers all of Oklahoma City, OK Brothers include Rodney Hicks of Portland, OR, and Ricky Brothers, Jr of Oklahoma City, OK, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
