In Loving Memory

Cyrus Jackson, Jr. was born in Fallis, Oklahoma on March 7, 1946 to Nettie May Johnson and Cyrus Jackson, Sr. Cyrus spent the early years of his life with his beloved grandmother, Opal J. Kelly of Lush, Oklahoma where his mother worked and went to school. Nettie then met and married, Robert Tarver of Wichita, Kansas. Robert was a wonderful stepfather who loved and raised Cyrus as his own.

Cyrus was the oldest of six siblings; two sister and four brothers, who loved and admired their big brother; Sandra, Michelle, Alfred, Ray, Larry and Michael all of Oklahoma City, OK.

Cyrus then met his soulmate on her 18th birthday, June 24th. They fell in love and united in marriage on May 2, 1970. To their union they had three children; Dennis Joe Jackson, Sandra Jackson and Delphine Jackson-Anko-bah all of Oklahoma City, OK.

He joined the United States Army and served from 1965 to 1967 where he received an honorable discharge. He also was ordained as a minister in 1995 at Provo Memorial Baptist Church in Oklahoma City by Rev. Gillstrap.

He spent most of his years as an independent contractor through the Oklahoma City Housing Authority until his health failed and he could no longer continue.

Cyrus was preceded in Heaven's Gates by; his only son, Dennis Joe Jackson; his baby girl, Delphine Jackson-Ankokah; his grandson; great friend, Jay W. Jackson; both parents; both sisters, Sandra and Michelle; and one brother, Ray Tarver.

He leaves to cherish his beautiful memories; his loving wife of 54 years, Alma Jackson; his daughter, Sandra Jackson; ten surviving grandchildren, Cyrus M. (London) Jackson, Dennis Jackson, Terrance Jackson, Julia Jackson, Jasmine (Antonio) Jackson-Adams, Delphine (Armon) Jones, Braylin Jackson, Jeniece Jackson, Chelsey McCollogh; eighteen great-grandchildren; one great-great grandchild; one aunt, Rhoda Rolfe; a host of nieces and nephews who loved him dearly; along with cousins and friends.

To know him was to love him. Cyrus loved to laugh, tell ole tales, family and life! He lived a life of Love and was always grateful, even if it was just conversation. Fly high our Beautiful Angel! Until we are united again. Always Loved!

My Last Request

Please don't say that I gave up. just say that I gave in.
Don't say I lost the battle, for it was God's war to lose or win.

Please don't say how good I was, but that I did my best.
Just say I tried to do what's right, to give the most I could, not less.

Please don't give me wings or halos, that's for God to do. I want no more than I deserve. No extras, just my due.

Please don't give flowers, or talk in harsh tones. Don't be concerned about me now, I'm well with God, I have made it home. Don't talk about what could have been, its over and done. Just see to all my family needs.

The battle has been won! When you draw a picture of me, don't draw me as a saint. I've done some good, I've done some wrong....
So use all of your paint.

Not just the bright and light tones. Use some gray and dark. In fact, don't put me down on canvas, just paint me in your heart. Don't just remember all the good times, but remember all the bad, For life is full of many things.

Some happy and some sad. But if you must do something, then I have one last request: Forgive me for the wrongs I've done and with the love that's left, Thank God for my soul's resting. Thank God for all who loved me, and praise God who love me the best.
