Obituary

On July 6th, 1979, in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. Edwin Ann Freeman and Ronnie Davis were blessed with the birth of their daughter Dorsheitha "Maenette" Freeman. Dorsheitha was one of eight children, She accepted Christ and was baptized at an early age. She attended Polk Elementary School as an honor roll student and would later graduate from Millwood High School graduating class of 1997.

Following graduation, she attended Rose State and Platt College where she received her Certified Nursing Assistant and Registered Medical Assistant certifications. She would eventually pursue and specialize in customer service which was her current occupation. She was an excellent writer, enjoyed music, poetry, and spending her free time with family and friends. She never met a stranger. Dorsheitha Maenette Freeman was a trailblazer, a true Rose from concrete. She leaves to cherish her memories, one daughter, Daija Haynes 21 of Stillwater, Ok; and two sons, Deandre Haynes 22, and King Lusk 10 both OKC; 3 sisters; Chantal Harding 32, Daya Davis, and Alma Davis. 3 brothers Edward Harding OKC, Ronnie Davis Jr, Brent Harding; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Broken Chain

We little knew that morning
God was to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly,
in death we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you,
You did not go alone.
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.
You left us beautiful memories,
Your love is still our guide,
And though we cannot see you,
You are always at our side.
Our family chain is broken,
and nothing seems the same,
But as God calls us one by one,
The chain will link again.
