

*Your little one's death has left a deep void in my heart
I don't know how you will ever overcome this testing time.*

*Just stay strong as we all are with you
In this hour of grief.
I pray to Almighty that may his soul will rest in eternal peace.*

Obituary

Jermaine Jerrod Copeland Jr. was born March 22, 1993 to LaQuita Denise Wilburn and Jermaine Jerrod Copeland Sr. He is the youngest of four siblings: Dominic, Terrance, Dameshia and Jermaine Jr. He was born in Fort Worth, Texas at John Peter Smith Hospital.

Jermaine went to elementary school in Fort worth, Texas. The family moved from Fort Worth, Texas when he was ten years old. He finished high school at Douglass High School and graduated Magna Cum Laude in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. He went on to OSU and received his certified nursing aide degree. He worked in different jobs as he got older.

Jermaine leaves to cherish his memory six children; four boys and two girls: Jermaine III, La'Shawn, Makaqi, J'Ian, Nouq'Kay, Ja'Loni. He was a great dad and hi children loved him very much.

Jermaine was a great dancer, loved music, and could draw out of this world. He loved clothes, shoes, hats, and socks. He had a hat to go with every occasion. He was just a really great person to talk to and hang out with. I would be laying in my bed watching TV and he would come in from work and go take a shower. Then come lay in the bed with me and talk to me until he fell asleep. Then he would wake up and say "Hey Ma what are we going to eat? I'm hungry." Then he would say, "man it's late I slept the day away, I wish Chick-fil-A was open, that's the only food I want to eat right now." Then we both would laugh and say I know right!"

Jermaine was a great person and he will be missed very much. - Love your Family
