

Obituary

Chaquita Ann Morton was born September 15, 1976 to Shirely Jean Prather and Donald Morton in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. She was the 2nd oldest of the three children.

She was preceded in death by her father.

Chaquita (our Annie) as we called her attended Douglass high school in Oklahoma City. Chaquita worked as a caregiver for many years helping others in need. She was a loving daughter, sister, and aunt. She enjoyed life. She always had a smile that warmed our hearts, jokes, and encouraging words to brighten someone's day. Chaquita moved to Arlington, Texas to be near to family. Chaquita accepted Christ at a young age. She loved God and continued her faith walk until God called her home on July 12, 2022.

Chaquita leaves to cherish the memories with her mother Shirley Prather, and sister Clelavette Prather both of Arlington, Texas and sister Latisha Prather of Oklahoma City. She also leaves to the memories with her grandmother (Emma), her aunt Cheryl, uncle Mike and Larry Morton all of Oklahoma City. She leaves behind several aunts, uncles, and friends. Including two special uncles Raymond and James Prather, and a special aunt Debra Faye Prather-Tyler.
