In Loving Memory

MARTHA JANE JOHNSON “JEAN” was born on November 8, 1949 (I’m still 16) to Frank and Juanita Bizzell in Tom, Oklahoma. She was one of thirteen children.

Jean’s childhood years were spent in Idabel, Oklahoma.

Jean found Christ at a young age. She was baptized at Galilee Baptist Church where she served as an Usher.

After graduating from high school in 1966, she moved to Oklahoma City. Then in 1968, Jean met and married the love of her life, Sidney Johnson.

Jean went to school to become a CNA.

Sidney and Jean had no children. But I helped raise all my nieces and nephews, Boss and James are my boys and Sharron is my daughter.

Preceding Jean in death was her love Sidney Johnson; her parents, six siblings, and three nephews.

Jean leaves to cherish her memory her sisters: Regina Birlew of the home; Rose (James) Manjane of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, and Audrey Thomas of Moreno Valley, California; her brother, James (Janice) Bizzell Sr. of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends.

Jean enjoyed life to the FULLEST!
